

Nursing in New Zealand

Two Free Seminars

Monday 5th March 2012 Metropolitan YMCA 1 Orchard Road
10.00am – 12 midday 2.00pm – 4.00pm

A seminar for
Malaysian and Singaporean
Registered Nurses interested in practicing as a
RN in
New Zealand

Overseas nurses wishing to practice in New Zealand need to apply to the New Zealand Nursing Council for the opportunity to obtain New Zealand Nursing Registration. Overseas nurses approved by the Nursing Council are required to complete a competency assessment programme through an accredited provider.

Rannerdale Veterans' Hospital, located in picturesque Christchurch is an accredited Nursing Council Competency Assessment Programme provider.

Steve Shamy, the General Manager of Rannerdale Veterans Hospital will be hosting two free two-hour seminars. Each seminar will have limited spaces available.

The seminars will cover

A brief overview of the New Zealand healthcare system

- Nursing and the nursing culture in New Zealand and job opportunities
- The New Zealand Nursing Council Competency Assessment Programme – an overview including requirements for entry and application process
- The Rannerdale Competency Assessment Programme including programmes structure, content and entry requirements and application process
- Programme fees
- On site student accommodation
- Effective student preparation strategies
- Question time
